

A forum for women's creative work—including work by women of color, lesbian and queer women, young women, old women—each issue of CALYX Journal breaks new ground.

2012 LOIS CRANSTON MEMORIAL POETRY PRIZE

Dates: March 1-May 31, 2012

Final Judge: Emily Warn

Prize: $300 plus publication in Winter 2014 CALYX Journal, Vol. 27:3

Details: Submit three unpublished poems (six pages maximum), cover letter with name and contact information, and $15 reading fee to Lois Cranston Memorial Poetry Prize, PO Box B, Corvallis, OR, 97339 or online www.calyxpress.org/submissions. Do not include name on poems--submissions will be read blind.

Emily Warn is the author of five collections of poetry, including The Leaf Path (1982), The Novice Insomniac (1996) and Shadow Architect (2008) from Copper Canyon Press. She most recently served as founding editor of poetryfoundation.org. Her essays and poems appear widely, including in Poetry, Poetry Northwest, Narrative, BookForum, Parabola, The Writers' Almanac, The Bloomsbury Review, Tikkun, and Critical Mass.

For complete guidelines or to read the 2011 winning poems, please visit www.calyxpress.org.

Yes! Send me a subscription to CALYX:

- 1 volume (3 issues) $21
 - 2 consecutive volumes (6 issues) $39
 - Low-income individual $19.50
 - Library/institution (1 vol.) $29
- Canada/Mexico, add $15/volume;
other international, add $25/volume
for shipping and handling.*

Paid:

- Check
- Cash
- Visa or Mastercard (circle)

Begin my subscription with Winter issue Vol. 27:1

_____ name _____

_____ address _____

_____ city _____

_____ state _____

_____ zip _____

_____ phone _____

_____ email _____

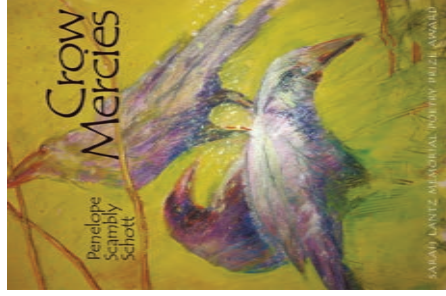

_____ exp _____

Who in This Room: The Realities of Cancer, Fish, and Demolition
by Katherine Malmo
9780934971126

Malmo's gripping debut collection of creative nonfiction pushes the boundaries of story and memoir. Told in first, second, and third person narration, Who in This Room tells the story of Kate, an adventurous 28-year-old whose life is interrupted by a diagnosis of inflammatory breast cancer.

"This moving, courageous, honest, and beautifully written account is not about the life of a cancer survivor, but rather of a life defined by living." —Nancy Pearl, NPR

Crow Mercies
by Penelope Scambly Schott 9780934971119

Enter a surreal world in which imagined visitors, realities, bodies, and animals create a ripe emotional landscape. Schott's lyric depictions of love, family, sex, and death through vivid images of spiders, orchids, bear-husbands, and more will startle and delight the imagination.

"Crow Mercies celebrates the naming of small things in order to know basic truths?"—Yusef Komunyakaa

Humming the Blues
by Cass Dalglish
9780934971928

The first signed literature by an identifiable poet in history was cuneiform tablets written in 2350 BCE by Enheduanna, a Sumerian poet, female prince, and priest. Using a jazz aesthetic, poet Cass Dalglish improvises on translations of Enheduanna, re-examining the ancient cuneiform through a contemporary feminist lens.

"Great Read for 2009" selected by Ms. Magazine

An independent book publisher since 1986, CALYX Books is committed to sharing the diverse voices of women.

To order, please contact:
Kelsey Connell, Director
director@calyxpress.org
Phone: 541-753-9384
Fax: 541-753-0515
www.calyxpress.org

BLACK CANDLE
by Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni
Feminist Theory & History
9780934971744

INDIAN SINGING
by Gail Tremblay
Feminist Theory & History
9780934971645

LINE OF CUTTING WOMEN
Ed. Margarita Donnelly et al.
Women's Studies
9780934971621

FEMME'S DICTIONARY
by Carol Guess
Gay & Lesbian Studies
9780934971867

A FIERCE BRIGHTNESS: TWENTY-FIVE YEARS OF WOMEN'S POETRY
Ed. Margarita Donnelly et al.
Women's Studies
9780934971829

GOING HOME TO A LANDSCAPE: WRITINGS BY FILIPINAS
Ed. Marianne Villaneuva and Virginia Cerenio
Women's Studies
9780934971843

NATALIE ON THE STREET
by Ann Nietzsche
Social Issues
9780934971416

STORYTELLING IN CAMBODIA
by Willa Schneberg
Sociology of War & Peace
9780934971904