

Abandon Hope.

Issue #2 Out Now

abandonjournal.com

Abandon Journal exists to showcase writing and artwork that has been created with abandon.

This is free to be interpreted liberally, but ideally it is the kind of work that takes risks, created in a space wherein the artist doesn't care what anyone else thinks or what everyone else is doing. We're open to hybrid work, genre, visual art, and more.

Each issue is a variation on a theme of abandon and showcases work that "abandons form."

We're writers, too, and are committed to paying contributors. And abandoning submission fees.

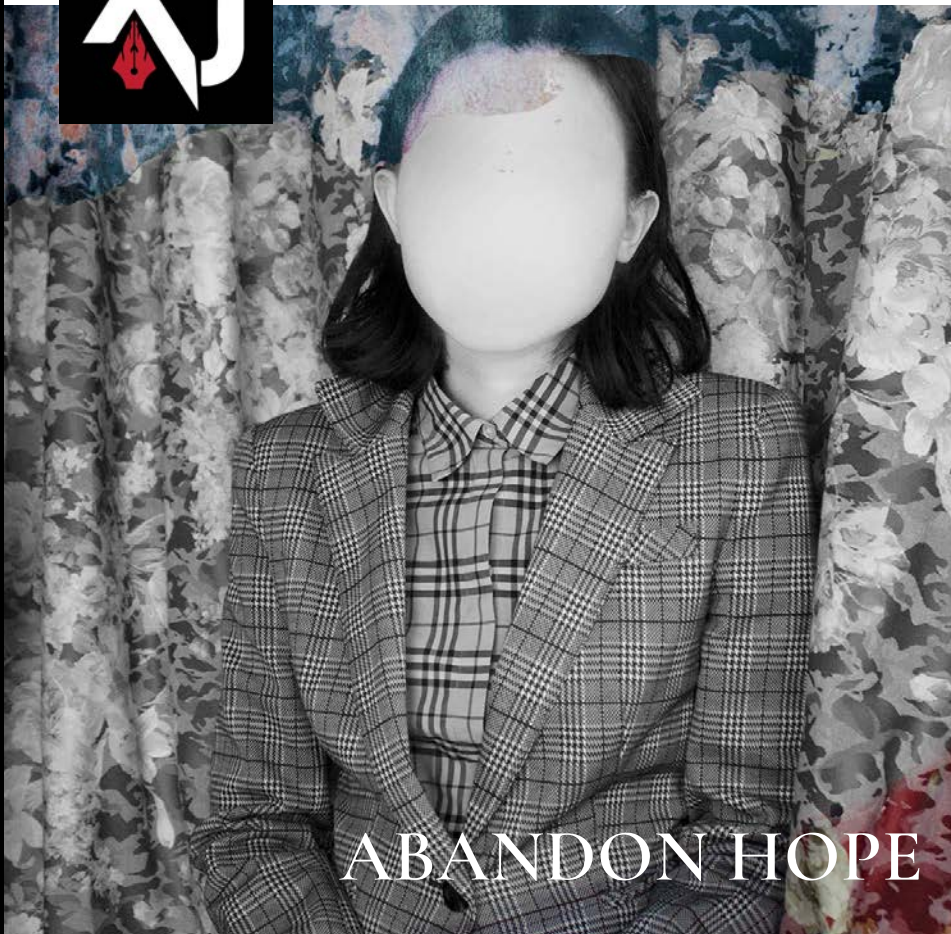

ISSUE #3: "ABANDON TIME"

SUBMISSIONS OPEN UNTIL 11/30/21

No fee to submit. $15 honorarium for all acceptances. Fiction, poetry, creative nonfiction, flash, graphics, visual art, and hybrid work. Full guidelines: abandonjournal.com/submissions
