You'll enjoy some of today's best fiction, poetry, and nonfiction from a diverse range of authors. Fascinating interviews. And conversations that help us understand what it means to be conscious and human in today's increasingly divisive world.

Tiferet (tiff-éh-ret) means beauty, glory, reconciliation of opposites. It stands for the third thing, a mediation between kindness and strength. In today's world of polarities, Tiferet is sorely needed.

"Thank you for this journal which combines spiritual issues, imaginative issues, esthetic issues. All of those, I think, need to be in the mix for the richly lived life, the richly observed life."

– Molly Peacock, former President of the Poetry Society of America

Contributors include Mark Doty, Nahid Rachlin, Ilan Stavans, Jean Houston, Stephen Dunn, Alicia Ostriker, Robert Pinsky, Ed Hirsch, Jane Hirshfield, and so many more...
