Submissions

Poetry and flash fiction submissions are open through Halloween for our spring 2020 issue. We are a paying market: top prize for our contests is $500, finalists receive our standard payment of $15 with publication and all those who enter our contests receive the prize issue.

In addition to being open for poetry and flash fiction through Halloween, Raleigh Review is now hosting a fall flash fiction contest. Top prize is $500, and each entrant to our contests will receive our Spring 2020 issue. The cost to submit to Raleigh Review is:
