Subscribe!

to Canada’s longest-running literary magazine! First published in 1945, The Fiddlehead is known as a WHO’S WHO in Canadian Literature. Many — now well-known — writers have found their first home in our pages, and they, as well as some of our editors and assistants, have gone on to win awards and prizes across the country and around the world.

Creative writing student or faculty?
Subscribe now and save 25% until July 1, 2016!

Return this form now to start your literary journey!

---

Upcoming soon in our pages:

Spring 2016
Winners and honourable mentions of our 25th Annual Literary Contest!

Summer 2016
Our all-poetry issue. Almost 200 pages of poetry and reviews. Contributors will include Mary Jo Salter and Les Murray, along with many more!

---

2 Years — 8 Issues
US & Int’l Subscribers $50 (Canadian Subscribers $41)

1 Years — 4 Issues
US & Int’l Subscribers $27 (Canadian Subscribers $22)

Mailing Address

Name: ____________________________
Email: ____________________________
Address: __________________________
__________________________________
Institution/Program: __________________

Cheque enclosed [ ] Visa [ ] MasterCard [ ]

Cheques should be made out to The Fiddlehead. All non-Canadian orders may be paid by US dollar cheque or by credit card. International orders done by credit card will be charged in Canadian dollars at the going exchange rate.

Card No.: __________________________
Expiry Date: ________________
Signature: ________________________

Please send this form & your payment to:

The Fiddlehead
Campus House, 11 Garland Ct.
PO Box 4400, UNB
Fredericton NB, Canada E3B 5A3

We occasionally make our subscriber mailing list available to other journals and magazines. To be excluded from these mailings, please check here: [ ]

---

This flier can be downloaded or printed from www.newpages.com/litpak