CLOCKWORK CANADA: STEAMPUNK FICTION  Anachronistic technologies, retro-futuristic inventions, alternative history, fantasy, horror, historical fiction, and other branches of speculative fiction all culminate in this supercharged anthology of fifteen all-new tales.  $19.95 CAN / $18.95 US ~ 304 pages

THOSE WHO MAKE US: CANADIAN CREATURE, MYTH, AND MONSTER STORIES  What resides beneath the blankets of snow, under the ripples of water, within the whispers of the wind, and between the husks of trees all across Canada? This is a powerful collection of 18 all-new, cross-genre tales that take the reader into real and imagined worlds.  $19.95 CAN / $18.95 US ~ 304 pages

BOZUK  A lonely middle-aged sex/massage therapist for seniors unexpectedly finds herself wonderfully alive in her parents’ home country of Turkey, amid a tumultuous mix of pluralism while soul-searching matters of family breakdown, personal fragility, and human connection. This novel is a tale for our times, enveloping the reader in a fictionalized travel memoir that blossoms with vivid language and imagery.  $19.95 CAN / $17.95 US ~ 240 pages

THE WAY OF ART  Artist and teacher Stephen Zeifman presents the benefits of becoming visually literate and participating in the visual arts. Each chapter is like a hall of exploration and discovery, taking the reader on a tour of a grand exhibition. But this is not a dry academic explanation of art, instead Zeifman uses museum visits in Toronto, San Francisco and London as catalysts for discussion and interpretation.  $17.95 CAN / $15.95 US ~ 96 pages

100 LOVE SONNETS  Pablo Neruda is still one of the most widely read, influential and beloved 20th-century poets. A Spanish/English bilingual edition. Translated by Gustavo Escobedo. Introduction by Rosemary Sullivan. Reflections on reading Neruda by George Elliott Clarke, Beatriz Hausner and A.F. Moritz. Includes four interior colour paintings by cover artist Gabriela Campos.  $19.95 CAN / $17.95 US ~ 248 pages

LUKE BALDWIN’S VOW  A timeless classic, highly recommended by generations of readers and educators. A story of a boy and his dog and their adventures, which will appeal to the many children, young adults and adults who are dog lovers. It is also a sensitive story of love and loss, and of making a new life for oneself. Although it was first published seventy years ago, only a few details (such as clothing) really indicate that it is not a contemporary story. Foreword by Jane Urquhart  $19.95 CAN / $17.95 US ~ 194 pages

BROKEN BALLOONS  Beautifully drawn and painted, accompanied by stories and poems, this wonderful menagerie of insects, animals and people are startling, at times frightening, but always grin-inducing over the pages. These 54 black and white and 16 colour works of art see Gail Prusky take her place alongside Edward Gorey, Ralph Steadman, Gary Larson, Tomi Ungerer; Robert Crumb and Maurice Sendak. Foreword by filmmaker David Cronenberg  $19.95 CAN / $17.95 US ~ 104 pages
