A Literary Offering

Who needs another literary magazine?

Discovering, bringing new poets from obscurity, is why Prospectus exists. We seek the work of emerging poets. Our magazine is published twice a year, in June and December. If you are unpublished or little-published, we invite you to submit your best poems for consideration. We also publish short prose pieces as well as fine-art images and reviews.

Submission Periods

- June 1 - Aug 31 for December issue
- Dec 1 - Feb 28 for June issue
