

LIVINGSTON PRESS

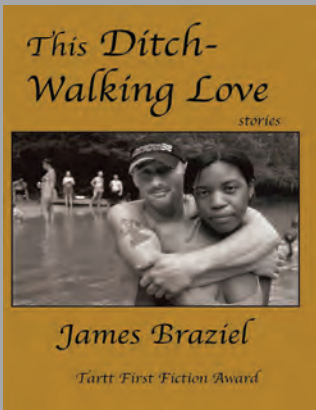

The University of West Alabama <https://livingstonpress.uwa.edu>

TARTT AWARD!

This Ditch-Walking Love

JAMES BRAZIEL

$18.95 paper, August.
isbn 978-1-60489-278-9
182 pages, stories

In this rural Cumberland Plateau county, a field row to pick through, a river bluff to jump from, or Jick's hellfire cars serve enough for people looking for what they can't fill on their own.

An Accidental American Odyssey
MARK BUDMAN

$17.95, paper, July, isbn 978-1-60489-288-8

138 pages
Sometimes immigrants must share their experience with those fortunate enough to reside in their countries of birth. Mark is one of those immigrants.

The Black Harvest
DAREN DEAN

$21.95 Paper, June
isbn 978-1-60489-270-3
366 pages, novel

A stark novel that explores our Civil War border states of Missouri and Kansas where infighting was especially brutal.

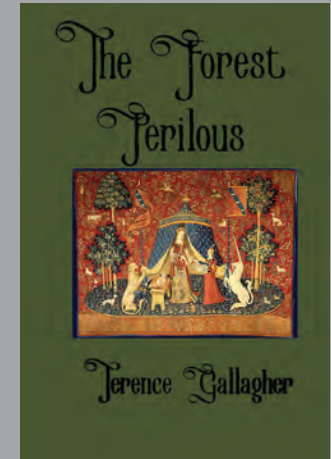

Fugitives of the Heart
WILLIAM GAY

$29.95 hardcover, June
isbn 978-1-60489-273-4
242 pages, novel

This long anticipated last novel by William Gay will not disappoint you with its Tennessee re-telling of Huck Finn in Gay's wondrous voice.

The Forest Perilous
TERENCE GALLAGHER

$19.95 Paper, May
isbn 978-1-60489-275-8
246 pages, novel

The second book of the Travelers & Dragons saga follows young James and Cornelia through a harsh life change.