

TARTT AWARD!
This Ditch-Walking Love
JAMES BRAZIEL

This Ditch-Walking Love

STORIES

James Braziel

Tartt First Fiction Award

$18.95 paper, August.
isbn 978-1-60489-278-9
184 pages, stories

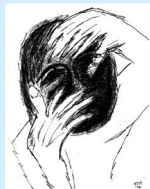

In this rural Cumberland Plateau county, a field row to pick through, a river bluff to jump from, or Jick's hellfire cars serve enough for people looking for what they can't fill on their own.

Madness with Grief
M KAAT TOY

$18.95 November
isbn 978-1-60489-300-7
176 pages, novel

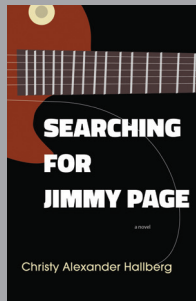

An autobiographical novel about an offbeat young woman's struggle to sort out the circumstances of her oldest brother's death.

MADNESS with Grief a novel

M. Kaat Toy

Searching for Jimmy Page
CHRISTY ALEXANDER HALLBERG

$21.95 paper, October
isbn 978-1-60489-291-8
366 pages, novel

"Them owls, like music," Luna Kane's great-grandfather, a self-proclaimed faith healer, says, triggering a quest from the Carolinas to Great Britain.

A Parcel of Rogues
JAMES FINDLAY SLEIGH

$19.95 paper November
isbn 978-1-60489-297-0,
278 pages, novel

A quirky, barbed comedy about Scottish independence from Great Britain.

A PARCEL OF ROGUES

a novel
JAMES FINDLAY SLEIGH

Me, Mo, Mu, Ma, & Mod

CURT LEVIANT

$19.95 paper, December
isbn 978-1-60489-294-9
238 pages, novel

In Venice, the narrator meets two women, one a devout and sensual Parisian; the other, an enigmatic beauty, who is mute but can hear. At the wedding—whoever the bride may be—a 17th century rabbi will cross time.