

PhiladelphiaStories

SANDY CRIMMINS NATIONAL PRIZE FOR POETRY

CELEBRATING RISK AND INVENTION IN POETRY

The Sandy Crimmings National Prize for Poetry annual national poetry prize features a first place $1,000; Three runners up will each receive a $250 each. Philadelphia Stories especially encourage poets from underrepresented groups and backgrounds to send their work.

- Submission deadline: November 15, 2021.
- The $5 fee covers the submission of (1) one single poem up to three pages in length.
- Only previously unpublished work will be considered.
- Poets currently residing in the United States are eligible.

ABOUT THE 2022 JUDGE: CYNTHIA ARRIEU-KING

Cynthia Arrieu-King is an assistant professor at Stockton University. A former Kundiman Fellow, Arrieu-King is the author of the poetry chapbook The Small Anything City (2006) and the full-length poetry collections People Are Tiny in Paintings of China (2010) and Manifest (2013).

DEADLINE — NOVEMBER 15, 2021

VISIT WWW.PHILADELPHIASTORIES.ORG/POETRY-CONTEST/ FOR DETAILS