

KALEIDOSCOPE

Seeking balanced, realistic portrayals of people who have disabilities through work that challenges and overcomes stereotypical, patronizing, and sentimental attitudes about disability. Submissions are accepted year-round and worldwide.

Fiction ♦ Personal Essays ♦ Creative Nonfiction

5,000 words or less

$25 stipend for contributor if work is published

Book Review

5,000 words or less

$25 stipend for contributor if work is published

Poetry

5 poem limit per submission

$10 stipend for contributor if work is published

Artwork

5-10 images maximum

Artist must have a disability to be featured

Up to $75 stipend for contributor if work is published

First published by United Disability Services in 1979, Kaleidoscope: Exploring the Experience of Disability through Literature and the Fine Arts has been exploring the creative spirit ever since. Each issue of this award-winning publication includes work written and created by individuals with disabilities as well as by those who have a connection to disability issues (family members, friends, healthcare professionals, educators, and others).

To read our magazine, submit work, or review our guidelines, visit:

www.KaleidoscopeOnline.org

To hear some of our authors read their work, listen to our podcast at:

KaleidoscopePodcast.podbean.com