FROM START TO FINISH

Imagine how it'll feel when you ...

Know exactly what to do next to complete your book project.

Are finally unblocked because you have a road map—a real plan—and answers to your questions.

Have connected with writers like you—writers who will help motivate you and hold you accountable now and in the future.

Can share your worries about how to move forward with a book coach who'll help you attain clarity.

PART ONE: PERSONAL ASSESSMENT—JANUARY-FEBRUARY, 2023

Prior to our all-day, in-person workshop, we'll share a simple tool to help you assess the strengths and weaknesses of your writing project.

PART TWO: IN-PERSON INTENSIVE WORKSHOP—MARCH 19, 2023

You'll join three certified book coaches who will help you discover the path to writing—and finishing—a novel, memoir, or nonfiction book you will be proud to share with the world. During our in-person time together, we'll meet in small groups to dive into your chosen genre (novel, memoir, or nonfiction). You'll meet one-on-one with a book coach to review our feedback on your assessment and get clear on your intended audience, the structure of your book, and other foundational issues. And you'll connect with peer writers.

PART THREE: MOVING YOU FORWARD—MARCH-APRIL, 2023

In the weeks after our in-person workshop, we will provide fresh feedback on a road map to help you complete your manuscript or proposal, and we will also facilitate additional peer networking.

MEET YOUR BOOK COACHES

Intensive Feedback

Feedback and support for you, both as an author and for your draft (before, during, and after the in-person workshop) so you can track your growth and progress.

Personal Coaching

A 1:1 session with a certified book coach to discuss your project, goals, and challenges, and map your way forward.

Peer Networking

Multiple opportunities to meet and connect with other serious writers, so you form new bonds of support, find new critique partners, and connect with writers facing similar challenges.
